Bowmore 2001 (AD Rattray Cask Collection) Islay 13 YO. 57.5% ABV. $79.98 + tax

Refill bourbon cask. Some compare this to Lagavulin 12.

Nose - Seems well balanced, as no one note dominates right away. Vanilla, lemon, black pepper, smoke, honey, seaweed, a little butterscotch, maybe some fresh oysters. Nice balance of spirit vs cask influence.

Palate - Lemon, honey, vanilla, butterscotch, with plenty of smoke, black pepper and seaweed as it develops. Nicely balanced. Medium to medium-plus body.

Finish - Gets progressively smoky, lemony and peppery, with the underlying sweet honey and vanilla notes.

As with most IB Bowmores, this is quite a tasty dram. The cask influence is definitely there, but this is spirit driven as much as cask driven, and the smokiness is without the inner tube notes I sometimes get (and don't really care for) from Bowmore. The way the lemon notes intersect with the smokiness make this seem almost like an Ardbeg.
