Glenglassough NAS 42.2% ABV (Highlands)
$49.99+4.12

This is the first chance to try whisky produced by the recently re-opened Glenglassaugh Distillery.

It was closed in 1986 but resumed production in 2008. This revival bottling is the first whisky to be made at the distillery since it reopened. Matured in a mixture of first and refill bourbon casks, this was finished for 6 months in first-fill oloroso sherry butts.

Tasting Note by The Chaps at Master of Malt

Nose: Sweet caramel and toffee with notes of nutty Sherry, milk chocolate and honey. Ripe plums, red berries and oranges. Caramelised sugar and earthy, charred oak.

Palate: Sweet, rounded and creamy. Oranges, plums, cherry and walnuts, chocolate, honey-mead, Sherry and soft, spiced oak.

Finish: Medium with warming mulled-wine spices, Sherry and caramel.

Craeg is a brand that sources different malt whiskies and blends them for specific tastes. This is their selection of Islay malts all aged at least 12 years, known for their salty and smoky character, offered without an age statement. The brand is produced by Quality Spirits International and owned by William Grant & Sons.

Nose: Robust peat with a hint of coal tar. Addition of a little water breaks dominance of peat and release subtle fruit and floral characteristics.

Palette: Chewy Big and bold with characteristic smoky notes. Over time peat character gives way to a more subtle oak derived sweetness.

Finish: Very long with lasting smoke.

Glenglassough NAS 42.2% ABV (Highlands)
$49.99+4.12

This is the first chance to try whisky produced by the recently re-opened Glenglassaugh Distillery.

It was closed in 1986 but resumed production in 2008. This revival bottling is the first whisky to be made at the distillery since it reopened. Matured in a mixture of first and refill bourbon casks, this was finished for 6 months in first-fill oloroso sherry butts.

Tasting Note by The Chaps at Master of Malt

Nose: Sweet caramel and toffee with notes of nutty Sherry, milk chocolate and honey. Ripe plums, red berries and oranges. Caramelised sugar and earthy, charred oak.

Palate: Sweet, rounded and creamy. Oranges, plums, cherry and walnuts, chocolate, honey-mead, Sherry and soft, spiced oak.

Finish: Medium with warming mulled-wine spices, Sherry and caramel.
