Nose: quite the sherry influence. Raisins and dried plums. Cherries and loads of dark chocolate. Toffee too and coffee beans. Then it becomes slightly fresher, because of the addition of oranges.

Taste: honey and oranges. Black cherries and a lovely layer of dark chocolate, which is followed by some spices such as a touch of black pepper, cinnamon and cloves. A pinch of ginger too.

Finish: mid-long and with a slightly bitter and dry edge that leans towards a mix of cacao and coffee beans. It also has the same spices as we have on the palate. Oranges and there is a balsamico note in the background.
