Lagavulin Offerman Edition 11yo 46% ABV $91.99+7.59 tax

Anyone who has watched Parks and Recreation will know Scotch whisky, wood, and steak are pretty much all Ron Swanson's favourite things. Well, those traits are shared by the actor who plays him, Nick Offerman, too. And as he and Lagavulin have been partnering up since 2014, nobody is surprised to see them create a whisky that was designed to be enjoyed with steak. The third whisky in the Offerman Edition series, Charred Oak Cask is aged in American and European oak casks that are shaved down then heavily re-charred, and is said to be the "perfect pairing for well-barked, medium-rare steak" with Offerman recommending a seared ribeye.

Nose: Smoke, vanilla fondant, apples, pears, citrus, malty sweetness with a touch of caramel and leather.

Palate: Smoke, caramel, vanilla, orchard fruit, citrus fruit, roasted nuts, malty sweetness and a touch of leather and spice..

Finish: Long, smoke, dessert sweetness and malty briny notes.
