LAGAVULIN 16 YO Islay Single Malt. 43% ABV

One of the great classics from Islay. Remarkably balanced, with dry & assertive flavors offset by the sweetness of Sherry oak. Complex, full-bodied, smoky, peaty tastes combine with salty sea tang in this elegant yet powerful Single Malt. A benchmark malt from Islay's south coast. This is perhaps more smoky than peaty, and has a wonderful flavour that pertains to Lapsang Souchong tea.

Nose: One of the smokiest noses from Islay. It's big, very, very concentrated, and redolent of iodine, sweet spices, good, mature Sherry and creamy vanilla. Stunning.

Palate: Very thick and rich. A massive mouthful of malt and Sherry with good fruity sweetness, but also a wonderful sweetness. Big, powerful peat and oak.

Finish: Long, spicy finish, figs, dates, peat smoke, vanilla.

Glen Fohdry 12 YO Speyside Mizunara Oak Cask, 47.1% ABV

Unfiltered. Finished in rare Japanese Mizunara oak, notoriously difficult for coopers to construct, but famously flavorful to whisky. Glen Fohdry is owned by Quality Spirits International who buys in bulk from unknown distillery, bottles and sells to Total Wine and More.

Nose: Light fruits is the first thing I notice with a good amount of honey. Pear and strawberry and some dusty malt.

Palate: There's a little more oak and malt on the palate than I expected based on the nose. There's still a good amount of candied fruit on the palate. There's a little more fruit and less wood with a splash of water. A good mouthfeel to it as well.

Finish: A decent finish that is very easy. The fruit stays throughout the whole finish.

LAGAVULIN 16 YO Islay Single Malt. 43% ABV

One of the great classics from Islay. Remarkably balanced, with dry & assertive flavors offset by the sweetness of Sherry oak. Complex, full-bodied, smoky, peaty tastes combine with salty sea tang in this elegant yet powerful Single Malt. A benchmark malt from Islay's south coast. This is perhaps more smoky than peaty, and has a wonderful flavour that pertains to Lapsang Souchong tea.

Nose: One of the smokiest noses from Islay. It's big, very, very concentrated, and redolent of iodine, sweet spices, good, mature Sherry and creamy vanilla. Stunning.

Palate: Very thick and rich. A massive mouthful of malt and Sherry with good fruity sweetness, but also a wonderful sweetness. Big, powerful peat and oak.

Finish: Long, spicy finish, figs, dates, peat smoke, vanilla.

Color: Pale Yellow Yellow Gold Greeny-Gold Bronze Amber Mahogany

Glen Fohdry 12 YO Speyside
Mizunara Oak Cask, 47.1% ABV

Unfiltered. Finished in rare Japanese Mizunara oak, notoriously difficult for coopers to construct, but famously flavorful to whisky. Glen Fohdry is owned by Quality Spirits International who buys in bulk from unknown distillery, bottles and sells to Total Wine and More.

Nose: Light fruits is the first thing I notice with a good amount of honey. Pear and strawberry and some dusty malt.

Palate: There's a little more oak and malt on the palate than I expected based on the nose. There's still a good amount of candied fruit on the palate. There's a little more fruit and less wood with a splash of water. A good mouthfeel to it as well.

Finish: A decent finish that is very easy. The fruit stays throughout the whole finish.
